

Post Production Limited
Orion House | 5 Upper St Martin's Lane | London | WC2H 9EA
e: enquiries@satisfaction.com | t: 020 7287 9839

Ella Newton

Avid / Premiere

Profile

Ella is a multiple award-winning editor with a great sense of pace, rhythm and timing. She has a wealth of experience in hard-hitting documentaries and is used to working with sensitive and emotive material. She tends to get heavily involved in the projects she works on, becoming a real part of the team and investing a lot into everything she works on. Dedicated to her craft, Ella is a real pleasure to work with.

Credits

"Children of the Cult" 1 x 90min. Filmmaker Maroesja Perizonius grew up in an environment where sex was everywhere, children were separated from their parents and there were no boundaries. This the story Netflix failed to tell, about children of one of the world's biggest cults, the Rajneesh movement. In the course of her unflinching investigation, she unmask perpetrators and demands answers from the Cult's inner circle. Five star review by Peter Bradshaw in the Guardian. Directors: Maroesja Perizonius, Alice McShane.
Dartmouth Films for ITV and cinematic release.

"The Crossing" 1 x 60min. Investigative documentary for ITV about the tragic capsizing of a dinghy of asylum seekers where over 30 people died. Featuring testimonies and archive from the bereaved families, the documentary identifies the smugglers involved, whilst also featuring new evidence into why these people weren't rescued even though they called the British coast guard for help. Exec Producer: David Modell.

ITV

Winner of the RTS Television Journalist Award 2023 for Best Current Affairs – Home
2023 Grierson nomination for Best Current Affairs Documentary category.
2023 BAFTA nomination for Best Current Affairs.
2024 Broadcast Award nomination in Best Current Affairs Programme

"Big Oil Versus the World - Denial" 1 x 60min. Episode 1 of a 3-part documentary series for BBC2 which investigates what the fossil fuel industry knew about climate change more than four decades ago. Director: Jane McMullen.

Mongoose Pictures for BBC Two and PBS Frontline

Winner of the Grierson Award 2023 for Best Environmental or Natural History Documentary
2023 Broadcast Awards nomination for Best Documentary Series
2023 RTS Programme Awards nomination for Best Documentary Series

"The Missing Children" 1 x 90min. Feature-length ITV documentary about the scandal of Ireland's Missing Children. At the Tuam mother and baby home in Ireland, 796 children, born to unwed mothers disappeared. Following relatives, survivors and adoptees it uncovers the truth about what happened behind the closed doors of Ireland's most notorious mother and baby home. Exec Producers: Brian Woods. Director: Tanya Stephan.

ITV

Winner of the BAFTA 2022 for Specialist Factual
Winner of the Grierson Award 2022 for Best History Documentary
Winner of the RTS Television Journalist Award 2022 for Current Affairs-International

"Rage Against the Regime: Iran" 1 x 60min. Episode 2 of a Two-part documentary series about 45 years of civil unrest in Iran that set the stage for the 2022 protests after the death of Mahsa Amini. Episode 2 features Iranian women's resistance, opening with a woman dressing as a man to enter sports stadiums where only men are allowed to enter. Director James Newton. Exec Mike Radford.
BBC2

"India's Rape Scandal" 1x 60min. Ramita Navai investigates rape, murder and political cover up in two shocking cases in India that have led to outrage and controversy. Exec Producer: Eamonn Matthews - Director: Jess Kelly.
Quicksilver Media for Channel 4 and PBS.

Rose d'Or 2021 News and Current Affairs Nominee

"This World: Hong Kong's Fight for Freedom" 1 x 60min. Episode 1 of a 2-part documentary about Hong Kong's pro-democracy protests in 2019, following four young protesters who take drastic action when they realise how far the authorities will go to silence them. Director: Toby Paton.
BBC Studios for BBC Two

"Crime Stories: India Detectives" 2 x 60min. Episodes 2 & 4. With unprecedented access to the Bengaluru City Police, this gripping series follows major criminal investigations from the moment the crime is reported through to the capture of the suspects. Exec Producers: Morgan Matthews and Fiona Stourton - Director: Jack Warrender.
Minnow Films for Netflix

"Italy's Frontline: A Doctor's Diary" 1 x 60min. With unprecedented access, award-winning filmmaker Sasha Joelle Achilli goes inside a hospital during the coronavirus crisis in northern Italy, capturing an unforgettable look at the harrowing, heroic fight doctors and nurses are waging against the disease. Exec Producer: Dan Edge - Director: Sasha Achilli.

Mongoose Pictures for BBC Two and PBS Frontline

Winner Rory Peck Award 2020 – Best Current Affairs Documentary

Winner Foreign Press Association Award 2020 – Documentary of the Year

2020 BAFTA Awards nomination for Best Current Affairs Documentary

2020 Emmy Awards nomination for Outstanding Current Affairs Documentary

"The Day California Burned" 1 x 60min. On 8th November 2018 a mega-fire swept through northern California. In its path was the town of Paradise. Within hours, around 30,000 people had lost their homes. It was the deadliest fire in America for a century. Drawing on hundreds of hours of footage, this film tells the chilling and dramatic account of that day. Director: Jane McMullen.

Blakeway Productions for BBC Two and PBS Frontline

Grierson Awards 2019 nomination for Best Single Documentary -Special Commendation

Emmy Awards 2019 nomination for Outstanding Current Affairs Documentary

"24 hours in Police Custody". 6 x 47min. Award-Winning channel 4 series: Including: 'Til Death do us Part' (2020). 'Chicken Shop Wars' (2021). 'The Night Prowler' (2024). 'The High Life' (2024). 'Murder Messages' (2024).
The Garden Productions for C4

"One Day in Gaza" 1 x 60min. The 14 May 2018 started as a day of mass protest at Gaza's border with Israel, and would end as one of the most deadly days in Gaza for a generation. This film reveals extraordinary new details of what happened. Exec Producer: Mike Radford - Director: Olly Lambert.

BBC Two and PBS Frontline

Winner of Broadcast Award 2019 – Best News/Current Affairs Documentary

RTS Awards 2019 nomination for Best International Current Affairs Documentary

Grierson Documentary Awards 2019 Nomination – Best Current Affairs Documentary -Special Commendation

“American Mercenaries: Killing in Yemen” BBC Arabic's Nawal Al-Maghafi reveals how the UAE hired mercenaries to conduct targeted assassinations of its political enemies in Yemen, with American mercenaries starting the killings in 2015. Director Jess Kelly.
BBC2

“Maradona in Mexico” 1 x 32min. Episode 2. In this docuseries, soccer great Diego Maradona comes to Culiacán, the heart of the Sinaloa Cartel, to save the local team, the Dorados, and maybe himself, too.
Ronachan for Netflix.

“Trans Kids: It’s Time to Talk” 1 x 47min. Psychologist Stella O'Malley considers the huge rise in numbers of young people embarking on gender transition, through the prism of the gender identity issues that she experienced when she was a child. Director: Olly Lambert.
Expectation entertainment for Channel 4

“Japan’s Secret Shame” 1 x 60min. In a country where rape laws are over a century old, one woman’s struggle for justice highlights the challenges women face around sexual violence.
Exec Producer: Brian Woods - Director: Erica Jenkin.
True Vision for BBC Two

“Revolution in Ruins: The Hugo Chavez Story” 1 x 60min. Archive heavy documentary looking at Hugo Chavez's 14-year presidency - a story of short-term achievements in health and education but also of a tragic legacy of his idealism, populism and pursuit of power. Director: Ruth Mayor.
BBC Studios for BBC Two

“The Fight for Mosul” 1 x 60min. Multi-award winning documentary following a group of young soldiers leading the fight to re-take Mosul after more than two years of ISIS rule. Directors: Olivier Sarbil & James Jones.
Mongoose Productions for Channel 4 and PBS Frontline.

*Winner of Emmy Award for Best cinematography

*Winner of Broadcast Awards 2018 – Best Documentary

Grierson Documentary Awards 2018 – Best Current Affairs Documentary Nominee - Special Commendation

“Tessa’s Final Campaign” 1 x 30min. With the UK having the worst survival rates in western Europe, Panorama follows Dame Tessa Jowell’s final fight for better access to cancer treatment. Filmed during the last few weeks of her life. Director: Erica Gornall.
Firecrest for BBC Panorama

“My Stolen Childhood” 1 x 30min. Brigitte Sossou Perenyi goes on a journey to understand the West-African traditional practice of ‘Trokosi’, where girls, like her, are enslaved to ‘pay’ for sins of family members.
On Our Radar & BBC Africa Eye for Our World BBC One

Winner AIB Best Human Interest Story

2018 Grierson Documentary Awards nomination for Best Documentary Short

“Shadow of Grenfell” 1 x 17min. Extended feature on how staff and students at a school on the foot of the tower are coping with the tragedy 6 months on. Director: Sara Moralioglu.
BBC Newsnight.

“Unarmed Black Male” 1 x 90min. Award-winning feature length doc directed by James Jones about a police shooting in America. Part editor.
Our World for BBC One.

“Iraq Uncovered” 1 x 60min. Investigating torture, execution and sectarian cleansing by the Shia Militia.
Director: Patrick Wells.
BBC for PBS Frontline.

"Britain's Home Building Scandal" 1 x 30min. In this dispatches episode, reporter Liam Halligan examines allegations that developers are deliberately holding back land to maximise profits.
Quicksilver for Channel 4

"Unreported World" 7 x 23min. "The Girl with No Face", "The Mafia Hunter", "The City with No Water", "Iran's Dating Revolution", "South Africa's Skin-Bleaching Scandal", "Africa's Superstar Gladiators" & "Evil in Paradise".
Quicksilver Media for Channel 4.

"Ebola Outbreak" 1 x 60min. Multiple award-winning documentary telling the vivid, inside story of how the 2014 – 2016 Ebola outbreak began, and why it wasn't stopped before it was too late. Part editor and reversioning editor.
Director: Dan Edge.

Mongoose Pictures and Quicksilver Media for Frontline PBS and BBC Two.

Winner of a BAFTA Award, Grierson Award and Emmy Award in 2016

"The Curious Life: The Story of The Levellers" 1 x 90min feature-doc about punk-folk band The Levellers, focusing on quirky and charismatic band member, Jeremy Cunningham. Director: Dunstan Bruce. Dandy Films.

"States of Undress: Palestine" 1 x 44min. Hailey Gates explores global fashion scenes and addresses many issues the industry often ignores. She shows us what the rest of the world is wearing, and more importantly, why.
Viceland & Apple TV